

WEST END SPEAKS UPDATE

A QUALITY OF LIFE PLAN FOR THE
FUTURE OF THE WEST END

KICK-OFF MEETING

West End Speaks is a quality of life plan for the future of the West End approved by the City of Cincinnati in 2016. This update is taking place in conjunction with the CMHA Transformational process supported by the Department of Housing and Urban Development (HUD). You are invited to help update this plan and to help shape the West End. Please join us to learn more and to provide input on how you envision the future of the neighborhood.

This meeting will contain opportunities for:

- Residents to show their interest in improving the neighborhood
- Community members to understand the planning process and their role in it
- Community members to understand the importance of a neighborhood plan
- Community members to learn about existing conditions of the neighborhood
- Community members to learn about the Choice Planning process for Stanley Rowe Towers and Rowhouses and Liberty Street Apartments
- Gather feedback and stories from community members to help inform work team focus, existing conditions, general vision for the neighborhood, etc.

All West End residents, businesses and community partners are welcome!
